

The City of Plano invites you to apply for the position of police officer.

The City of Plano invites you to apply for the position of police officer.

Officers are hired from an eligibility list consisting of the names of individuals who have successfully passed the Civil Service Entrance Examination. The eligibility list is valid for 6 months or until exhausted.

Our next Civil Service Entrance Examination will occur on Saturday June 2nd, 2018 at 8:00a.m., at Plano Senior High, Building C (2200 Independence Parkway Plano, Texas 75075).

To be eligible to take the exam, a properly completed Police Entrance Exam Application must be received by the Civil Service Test Administrator by 11:59PM (CT), Friday, May 25th, 2018. You must pre-register to take the exam.

Please read and follow instructions carefully. The entrance exam application is on our website, <http://www.plano.gov/433/Employment>. The eligibility checklist and causes for disqualification are listed on the entrance exam application. Please review the eligibility requirements and causes for disqualification before registering.

You will be notified within 5-7 business days via E-Mail whether or not you are eligible to sit for the exam. (As unknown e-mail reverts to “junk/spam mail” it is the responsibility of the applicant to check both their “inbox” and “junk” email for confirmation). If you are notified that you are eligible to sit for the exam, you are required to bring the printed email notification confirmation with you to the Civil Service exam. The notification allows you entrance to the exam site. You are also required to bring a completed, notarized Personal History Statement with you, which is located on our website www.planopolice.org.

The Plano Police Department is a nationally accredited law enforcement agency with strong community relationship values. Historically, Plano achieves one of the lowest crime rates for Texas cities with population over 100,000. After 36 months of service, a Plano officer earns an annual salary of more than $84,000. I think you will find the Plano Police Department offers a tremendous career opportunity.

Please email or call the Professional Standards Unit if you have questions or concerns.
