CITY OF KERRVILLE DEPUTY CHIEF OF POLICE

The City of Kerrville is currently seeking interested candidates for the position of Deputy Chief of Police. Kerrville is located in the heart of the Texas Hill Country, and surrounded by majestic rolling hills, the beautiful Guadalupe River, and picturesque trees. Kerrville is 60 miles west of San Antonio on Interstate 10 and covers 12 square miles. While Kerrville has approximately 24,000 residents, the city swells daily and seasonally as an economic, retail, medical, and higher education center for the region. The Guadalupe River weaves throughout the community and offers fishing, swimming, canoeing, kayaking, and camping.

This position is appointed by and serves at the pleasure of the Chief of Police. Under general direction, is responsible for assisting in all aspects of administration and management of the city's Police Department. The Deputy Chief of Police uses judgment and acquired knowledge in interpreting state laws, local ordinances and departmental regulations, as well as appraising the effectiveness of enforcement. Independent judgment is frequently exercised in leadership, discipline, and in determining operational policies, selection of personnel, and in managing the proper and efficient operation of the department. Position is responsible for performing all duties of the Chief of Police during absence, vacancy or as directed.

The ideal candidate will have at least ten years of progressively responsible experience and an Associate's Degree from an accredited college or university; graduate of the FBI National Academy or equivalent Command College preferred. The successful candidate must be a Certified Peace Officer in the State of Texas, hold an Advance/Master TCLEOSE Certification and a valid Texas Class C Driver's License.
